

How To – Put on a Tallit Katan

You will need: Tallit Katan

Information: The Tallit Katan is a four-cornered garment that have tzitzit hanging from all four corners. Observant Jewish men (and women in non-Orthodox Judaism) commonly wear it in addition to the Tallis during morning services. This permits them to fulfill the important mitzvah of tzitzit all day long.

Instructions:

Step 1: Put the tallit katan on.

Step 2: Hold the tzitzit and recite the blessing.

Blessed are You, Hashem, our G-d, King of the universe, Who has sanctified us with His commandments and has commanded us to wrap ourselves in tzitzit

Step 3: Kiss the Tzitzit.
